Happy Father's Day

Looking good Larry.

Who knew Groucho Marx had a twin.

Father's Day was celebrated with a breakfast, a photo booth, Nerf gun competition and ended with happy hour.

GARDENING SKILLS

Ray couldn't wait to play in the dirt.

Great job ladies on making our building beautiful.

Can't wait for those BLT's.

NATIONAL EGG DAY

June 3rd was National Egg Day, so we celebrated by having a breakfast of scrambled eggs and homemade toasted bread.

STAFF APPRECIATION GIFTS

What a cute herd of sheep.
The resident turned a roll of toilet paper into sheep. Makes for a great decoration for a bathroom.

CRUISING BRITT IN STYLE

Ray taking a ride on his golf cart and taking in the sights of Britt. Remember the speed limit is 20!

Larry cruising the highways in Style. Larry loves riding his Three Wheel Tryke.

MOUSE TOSS

Our new game for the residents was a little more difficult than cornhole. What talent we have here at Summit House.

SPELLING BEE CONTEST

What a fun activity we had doing our first Spelling Bee Contest. They all did a great job spelling and were all winners!

FLAG DAY CRAFTS

Fourth of July hallway decorations.

Thank you Darlene for sharing your sewing talents and making these beautiful flags for us.

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Congratulations Lora on being chosen as July Employee of the Month! Lora works in the Summit House dietary department as a cook. She has a great rapport with the tenants, and others on the Summit House team. Lora is dependable and she cooks up a delicious meal! We are blessed to have Lora on the Summit House Team! Outside of work Lora enjoys spending time with her family, especially her grandchildren.
